4.02 TRAVEL

Travel costs will be tied to the rate of the National Church.

4.03 MEALS

Meals for members of Synod will be paid to a maximum of $20/day upon submission of receipts.

4.04 MODERATOR HANDBOOK

Some helpful thoughts, in no particular order.

1. To robe or not to robe for the opening sederent:
  - a) Ruling elder. It has gone different ways
    - borrow a robe from a minister
    - wear a choir gown
    - wear a suit.
  - b) Clergy are robed.

2. Have the excerpts from the Book of Common Worship entitled:
  - a) Opening and Closing of a court.
  - b) Installation of a Moderator.
  - c) A copy of the previous year's Synod Minutes, which will help to guide you through the order of the Synod Meeting.

3. Prayers and Devotions
  - a) If so desired, the Moderator may name a chaplain to pray with and for him/her during Synod and throughout the year.
  - b) The Moderator is responsible for a third devotion at Synod should the need arise.

- c) The Moderator will be asked to offer a memorial prayer for the devotion and service of all teaching and ruling elders in the Synod who have passed away during the past year.
  - d) There may be times that prayer is requested or needed to deal with an issue; it is the Moderator's prerogative to decide when prayer will be used and to lead the prayer.
4. Helpful rules to establish at the opening of the first sederent:
    - a) Use the mics and ask members of the court to state their name and presbytery before proceeding to address the court.
    - b) Remind the court that when the moderator stands the discussion stops
    - c) Discussion is to be around policy and procedures not people and personalities
  5. Be sure to have a copy of the Standing Orders for the Synod. It is also useful to have read them as it gives an overview of the Standing Committees of Synod, their responsibilities and membership. A review of Chapter II - General Rules for Church Courts and Chapter VII - The Synod, has also proven very useful.
  6. It is the responsibility of the outgoing or returning Moderator to:
    - a) Arrange the Opening Worship service in conjunction with the host
    - c) Be prepared to say a little something about the outgoing moderator and thanking him/her for their work throughout their term.
  7. The Moderator becomes the convener of the Synod Administrative Committee and as such will set the dates and agenda for the meetings in consultation with the Clerk and then chair the meetings
  8. The outgoing Moderator becomes the convener of the Synod Nominating Committee which, depending on the term of the incoming Moderator, may be a one or two-year commitment.

4.05 GUIDELINES FOR SYNOD COMMITTEE'S USE OF EMAIL

We note that email is a fast and easy resource to disseminate information and even to take quick "straw votes" which we would be foolish not to use. This seeks to provide a framework for when it should and should not be used.

Email may be used:

- by the Secretary to send out minutes,
- by the Secretary to distribute reports or correspondence for upcoming meetings,
- by the Secretary to give notice of upcoming meetings, or to seek to set up meetings,
- by any member who wishes to receive feedback on a report or piece of work which is in process, in which case the report can be sent out by email, and comments made, using “reply all”, and with no decision being made.

When a decision by the committee is required in between meetings:

- a vote may be administered by the Convener using email;
- it will be regarding a decision which:
  - o is straightforward, involving a simple agree/disagree,
  - o would not normally be expected to generate a lot of discussion;
- the process will be:
  - o The Convener emails the committee, stating the question to be decided, with any background information, ask for a yes/no vote on the question from each member, with a stated deadline for responses,
  - o Anyone who objects to deciding the question by email may state his/her objection, and the process will be discontinued:
    - the Convener will communicate this development to the others, and may:
      - reframe the question to make it clearer or more acceptable, and ask again,
      - or call a special meeting (face to face or conference call) to consider the matter,
      - or leave the matter to the next regularly called meeting of the committee.
  - o For the matter to be decided, 80% of the members of the committee must respond, and a simple majority is required to adopt the motion.
  - o The Convener will announce the decision promptly to the committee, and this will become an item for information at the next meeting of the committee, and entered in the minutes of that meeting, with the details of the date and nature of the decision made.

Email should not be used:

- to discuss sensitive issues,
- to attempt to make decisions which are complicated or which would require a full discussion,
- which contains any language or comments which one would not use if the people involved were receiving it - remember, email is ultimately not private.

4.06 LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS TEAM

- The location of the next Synod Annual Meeting is chosen during the current event.
- Discuss with the Synod Treasurer (Richard Anderson in Eckville @ 403-746-3674 or randersonacres@gmail.com) the approximate budgeted amount for this event.
- As soon as possible visit several hotels/motels and negotiate a block of rooms for out-of-town attendees at a discounted price (10 each for Thursday and Saturday and 40-50 for Friday). Although most meals will be provided by the host church, breakfasts are not, so a nearby restaurant is necessary.
- Draw up an overall plan as to when various jobs need to be started/ completed.
- Early in the year choose a caterer for the Friday and/or Saturday evening meal and find out just what they include (i.e., dishes, tablecloths, napkins, etc.).
- Registration forms need to be drawn up and emailed, where possible, to members of presbytery rolls and appendices. The registration form should include a map of the area where the host church and hotel are located. As well, the Clerk's notice of meeting information page needs to be included in this registration mailing.
- As registration form responses come in to the host church set up a computerized list to track who will attend the various parts of Synod i.e., workshop, Synod meetings, meals, etc.), who has allergies, who needs a bag lunch for traveling home, who needs transportation to or from the local bus or airport, etc.
- Make local arrangements with the host church as to which groups/people will prepare, make food, host morning & afternoon coffee breaks, and lunches. As well an opening worship service followed by a reception needs to be planned for Friday evening. The host church minister and current/past/in-coming Synod Moderator are responsible for the worship service
- Have a registration area available in the host church for people when they arrive.

- Have welcome packages prepared for all those who have registered. These might include a map of the host city, a notebook, pen, pin or any pamphlets available from the local tourism office outlining things to do with special discounts in the host city, etc. It should also include a necklace nametag with the registrant's name printed on it.
- Have plans organized as to which areas the workshop, meetings, coffee breaks, luncheons, etc. will be held and how they need to be set up.
- Make up announcements for host church's Sunday bulletins to ask for items needed e.g., bag lunches, people to provide transportation, goodies for coffee breaks, etc.
- Phone for volunteers to help with various functions.
- Provide the church caretaker with a list of needs and what his responsibilities are.
- Make arrangements for sound system requirements, visual needs, blackboards, computer, and photocopier accessibility.
- Provide access to a private area for the Synod Treasurer where he can set up his laptop and issue cheques.
- Send thank you notes to all helpers involved.
